Mission Statement

We the members of Fairview Park Fine Arts & Theatre Association are dedicated to promoting and advancing excellence in theatre and the performing arts through participation in a multitude of theatrical and musical events. Provide a quality and safe environment to learn and grow in all aspects of the performing arts for all ages. Allow fellowship and bonds to be shared with each of the performing members and the surrounding community. Promote skills and talents that not only will be showcased but will be given the opportunity to blossom. Create, develop and maintain a support structure that will provide the opportunities to interact with others, develop self-discipline and master skills. Build confidence and skills both on-stage and behind stage to build creativity and talent
